

Consent to Use Data for Research. By downloading and using this application, you consent to UChicago Argonne LLC collecting and using a portion your data for purposes of research, as approved by the U.S. Department of Energy's Institutional Review Board. The IRB has not approved the terms of service for this app and you are encouraged to review them carefully before you agree. The IRB has reviewed the terms of service and feel they are of minimal risk to the subject. UChicago Argonne LLC anticipates collecting research data on this app for a minimum of 6 months but no longer than 24 months.

Please remember:

- Upon request, someone will explain this research study to you. If you desire to learn more, please contact evrest@anl.gov.
- Whether or not you take part is up to you.
- You can choose not to take part.
- You can agree to take part and later change your mind but your data will not be removed.
- Your decision will not be held against you.
- You can ask all the questions you want before you decide to withdraw by contacting evrest@anl.gov.
- You do not waive any benefits to which you are otherwise entitled.

For approved research, Argonne will attempt to remove personally identifiable information, such as name, email address, phone number or personal address. Argonne will use such data by assigning a unique ID to each account. The researchers may gain access to personal information. However, Argonne will at all times maintain the confidentiality of personally identifiable information.

The data with direct identifiers removed could be used for future research studies or distributed to another Principal Investigator for future research studies without additional informed consent from you.

There is minimal risk to you in participating in this study. As with any software application, there is always the possibility of the loss or breach of personally identifiable information. While there is no direct benefit to you personally, the information provided could help improve the Electric Vehicle charging process.

Your participation is voluntary and you can withdraw at any time without penalty by contacting evrest@anl.gov, or uninstalling the application.

By downloading and using this application, you consent to participate in this research.

If you have questions you can contact the research team at evrest@anl.gov. If you want to speak with someone independent of the research team, you can contact the Institutional Review Board that reviewed this study at CDOEIRB@orau.org.
